HATCHET FINDS DANGEROUS CLAUSE

Senator Chamberlain's Amendment,
Aimed at Education Board, Hits
University—May Be Modified in Conference

About one third of the teaching staff of the University, those professors who are employed in the Government during the day and teach at night, would be forced to give up any salary they are receiving from the University, if an amendment offered to the Congressional legislative bill by Senator Chamberlain of Oregon becomes a law.

A provision, aimed to prevent employees of the General Education Board, the Rockefeller foundation and the Carnegie foundation from becoming government employees nominally, prohibits Government employees from accepting pay from any source outside of state, county or municipal governments.

This dangerous provision was discovered by The Hatchet and Watson Davis, William S. Hance and Miss Elizabeth Cullen on Wednesday saw Senator Chamberlain, who said that there was no intent to harm the University in the provision.

President Stockton was notified and Clephane and Clephane, the University counsel, drafted an amendment to the amendment, that was presented to Senator Chamberlain.

When the bill is in conference with the House and Senate committees, Senator Chamberlain has promised to remedy the prohibiting provision so as not to apply to the University.

G. W. GENERAL ALUMNI CATALOG IS ISSUED

Lists Graduates of All Departments by Classes, Alphabetically and Geographically

The General Alumni Catalog of the George Washington University has just come from the press.

Containing the names of all graduates of all the departments of the University from the first three in 1824, the third year after Congress granted a charter to Columbian College, down to last year, and prefaced by a historical sketch of the University by President Stockton, it is a record of the life of the University. It is bound in buff and blue cloth.

Alumni are cataloged according to their year of graduation and their department, geographically, and alphabetically. Under each name, there is a biographical paragraph and the last known address of the graduate. The catalog lists about 8,000 degrees that have been conferred.

The book was compiled for the University by W. J. Maxwell. Dean Howard L. Hodgkins, who has been secretary of the Alumni Association for many years, aided in the work by allowing the use of the files he has kept up to date.

This is the first alumni catalog issued since the one compiled by Dean Hodgkins in 1891.

UP GOES MEDICAL TUITION

Will Not Affect Present Students,
However

The war, high cost of living, etc., has seized another victim in the Medical Department. Tuition in the Medical and Dental Schools will be increased next year if recommendations to be made to the Board of Trustees are approved.

If the increase is made it will be effective next year, but will not affect those now registered in the department, President Stockton has announced.

PLAN ALUMNI FUNCTION

An alumni function for the commencement in June is being planned by the executive committee of General Alumni Association.

QUINT LOSES TWO, WINS ONE GAME

G. U. and Gallaudet Win, But Davis and Elkins Loses

A win from Davis and Elkins and losses to Gallaudet and Georgetown is the record of the George Washington University basketball team for the past two weeks.

The next game will be on Monday with Catholic University at the Arcade, and the next home game will be with the University of Tennessee at the Y. M. C. A. on February 24.

LOSE TO GEORGETOWN

Score is 45 to 23 in Season's Poorest Game

Ryan Gymnasium, Georgetown, Wednesday Night.—Playing the poorest game of the season, the George Washington quintet lost to Georgetown tonight by 45 to 23 in the second game this year between the colleges. (Continued on page 4)

CO-EDS TRAVEL NORTH

Girls' Basketball Team Plays Four Games

The girls' basketball team will start on their annual invasion of the north today, leaving this morning for Swarthmore, Pa., where they will play Swarthmore College this afternoon, going on to Philadelphia this evening.

The annual game with Temple University of Philadelphia is scheduled for tomorrow evening. Sunday the girls leave for Boston, where two games are scheduled, one with Radcliffe College, Tuesday, February 13, and the other with the Sargent School of Physical Culture, Thursday, February 15.

Mrs. Eva Baker Lewis, coach of the team, will chaperon the girls.

Two Big Mile Relays In G. W. Indoor Meet

Two big relays have been carded for the University Indoor Track Meet, Friday, March 2. Virginia meets Pennsylvania State and Lehigh meets Lafayette in mile events. These two are sure to be fast, close and thrilling. Besides these, G. W. should be well matched against the famous Carlisle Indians in another mile relay.

The two-mile Southern Intercollegiate championship relay should be fast and spirited. Georgetown and Virginia Polytechnic will probably enter strong teams in this event, and other southern teams will be sure to contest.

CHERRY TREE OUT SOON

Will Not Publish Who are Tax
Signers

The managers of The Cherry Tree are busy putting the finishing touches to the year book, which will appear soon.

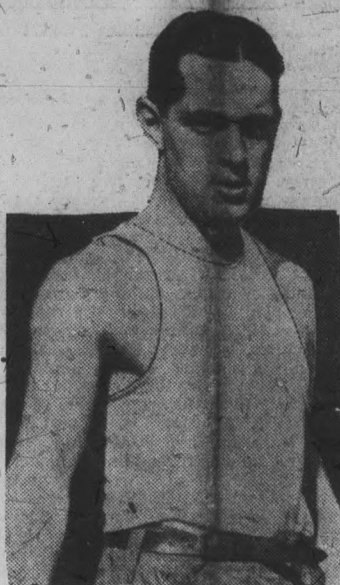

The picture campaign closed February 1, and all students who have not yet returned their proofs to the photographer must do so this week in order to be represented in the book. Those who enrolled in February should see the managers at the Hatchet office and arrangements will be made for their pictures. Group pictures are on sale at the Hatchet office.

The Cherry Tree wishes to correct a misunderstanding which has resulted from its card system. It has been the understanding on the part of some students that tax-signers would be distinguished from non tax-signers in the book. This is not the case, however, and its solicitation along this line was for verification only.

DEAN OFFERS SERVICES

Dean Charles Edward Munroe, of the Graduate School, inventor of smokeless powder, has offered the Government his services for scientific work in case of war.

URGE FURTHER EFFORTS FOR MILITARY COURSE

Council Appoints Class Pin Committee—Wants No Dates Conflicting with "A Night Off"

That further efforts to organize a class in military science in the University be made was the decision of the Student Council at its meeting last Monday night in the Law School. William Stayton, chairman, Watson Davis, and John S. Bixler were appointed a committee to urge the movement.

The Council decided to ask all societies and fraternities in the University not to schedule events to conflict with the presentation of "A Night Off" on the evening of Washington's Birthday, and approved the idea of having fraternities seated together.

A class pin committee to handle orders for a uniform class pin for all graduates of all departments was appointed, consisting of John S. Bixler, chairman, Elmer Kayser, and Miss Theodosia Seibold. The uniform class pin adopted last year by the Association of Class Presidents will probably be used.

The athletic committee was instructed to ratify appointments of assistant managers in athletics so as to form an eligible list from which to select next year's managers.

The Freshman Prom was discussed and Miss Theodosia Seibold was added to the social committee.

The next meeting of the Council will be on Monday evening, February 19.

PRETTIEST GIRL PLEASE CALL

Valentine Letter Awaits Her at the Hatchet Office

Will the most beautiful girl student in George Washington University please call at the Hatchet office. The editorial staff holds in trust a letter addressed to her.

The missive, which is suspected by the handwriting experts to be a valentine, was received thru the mail last week. The editors are very anxious to deliver it.

PROM TONIGHT IS BIG SOCIAL EVENT

Annual Freshman Dance In Raleigh Ballroom

Tonight is the big social night of the University. Fair co-eds with dress-suited escorts will attend the Freshman Prom to be held this evening from nine to one o'clock at the Raleigh. They will dance to the music of a seven-piece Meyer Davis orchestra.

President and Mrs. Stockton and the deans of the various departments and their wives will chaperone.

The Freshman class presidents are in charge of the annual function. Perry M. Johnson, chairman of the Council social committee, has general supervision. Tickets at $2 a couple can be obtained from class presidents.

A novel scheme of listing those attending is the coupon on each ticket which is to be filled in. Press lists will be made from these coupons.

PLAY PLANS FORMED

Tickets Issued and Business Staff Announced

Artistic and financial arrangements for the production of "A Night Off" by the G. W. U. Players in the auditorium of the new Central High School on the evening of Washington's Birthday are progressing.

The cast is rehearsing nightly under the direction of Sol S. Gluck and Henry J. Breslau.

Ernest M. Elkin, who is managing business matters, is being aided by William Bastian, assistant manager; Elmer Pendell, stage manager; William Gilligan, program editor; and an executive committee composed of Misses Elizabeth Speiser, Fay Pierce, Lenore Kolar, Edna Dixon, Martha McGrew and Nell Stanton. The subcommittee in charge of scenery, costumes and decorations is composed of Misses Elizabeth Cullen, Rachael Benfer, Elizabeth Voorhees, Louise Lower, Mary Newcombe and Bertha Yoder.

Advertising for a planegravure souvenir program is being obtained by members of the sororities.

Tickets are on sale at fifty, seventy-five cents and a dollar and general admission tickets can be obtained from members of the Players. Reserved seats may be obtained at T. Arthur Smith's. The athletic associations of the Washington high schools are co-operating in the sale of tickets. Already 1658 tickets have been distributed.

Block reservations of seats for societies and fraternities, faculty and patrons and patronesses of the production have been made.

Students Urge Preparedness Before Senate Committee

A delegation of students represented the University at the hearing before the Senate Committee on Military Affairs, January 25, on the stand of the universities throughout the country regarding preparedness and universal military training. Princeton, Lehigh, Pennsylvania, and Georgetown also were represented. The G. W. delegation was composed of William H. Stayton, Jr., chairman, Rhesa M. Norris, William S. Hance, Jr., and William Wilbur.

WHOLE UNIVERSITY READY IF WAR COMES

Coast Artillery Company Ready To Be Called Out

CLERK-STUDENTS HELP GOVERNMENT

President Ready to Serve—See Little Decrease in Enrollment—Urge Military Course

The whole University, from Rear Admiral Charles Herbert Stockton, U. S. N., retired, to the lowliest freshman is ready to back the President of the United States in case of a declaration of war against Germany.

With the Coast Artillery company as a part of the National Guard of the District of Columbia, many students who are technically trained, many students who have attended military instruction camps, and a large percentage of the evening students employed in the Government departments doing work necessary in war, the University will be able to furnish necessary help in war time.

Artillery Waiting
Altho there is no immediate probability of the Coast Artillery Company being ordered into Federal service at the present time, according to Capt. Walter W. Burns, commanding, and Capt. A. C. Thompson, inspector-instructor, in case of graver prospects it would probably be sent to Fort Washington or some other Atlantic coast defense.

The company consists of 72 enlisted men and two officers. Walter W. Burns is captain and Howard W. Hodgkins is second lieutenant.

"I am on the war slate, and in case of need I am ready to go back on board ship," was Rear Admiral Stockton's declaration.

"It is not likely that the University (Continued on page 3)

PITT AND W. & J. DEBATES ON MILITARY SERVICE

Try-outs for Team on February 20.
Both Debates on Same Subject

The George Washington University debating team will meet the debating teams of the Washington and Jefferson College, and Pittsburgh University on April 5 and April 12 respectively. The debates will probably be held at the Public Library. The question for the first debate is: "Resolved, That the United States should adopt universal military service." The subject for the second debate is the same as the first, with constitutionality waived.

Tryouts for places on the team that will represent the University in both debates will be held Tuesday night, February 20, at 7:45 o'clock, at the Law School. The team will be composed of three men and a first and second alternate, and training will start immediately after the try-outs. Applicants for try-outs are requested by PGad B. Morehouse, coach of the team, to write their names and addresses on cards and leave them with the secretary of the Law School.

VISIT FORT TOMORROW

Coast Artillery Company Has Annual Inspection

The Coast Artillery Company will leave for Fort Washington tomorrow afternoon at 5:15 o'clock from the engineer wharf, and will spend Saturday night and Sunday in drill and practice with the big guns at the fort.

The annual inspection of the company took place on January 31 at the First Street Armory, with Maj. Buckley, commanding the Potomac defenses, as inspector. The men were questioned and all equipment inspected. Brig. Gen. William E. Harvey, commanding N. G. D. C., was present.

HOLIDAY MARCH 5

March 5, the day of the Inaugural Parade, will be a holiday in all departments of the University, President Stockton has announced.

Senate Amendment

Senator Chamberlain's amendment, aimed at several large educational foundations and not at the University, promises to hit the University a blow that would paralyze a large part of its work.

To deprive the University of the services of the government experts who teach here would be harmful to the Government as well as to the University.

These experts, as teachers, must keep up with the progress in their particular fields, and this works to the advantage of the Government.

The government clerks, nearly 1,000 of them, who attend the University are benefited by the expert teaching of the Government employe-professors, and their improvement helps the Government.

It is probable that the amendment will be so restricted in the conference between the Senate and House committees that it will not affect the University. But it would be a misfortune to the University to let it pass in its present form.

Ready!

In case of a conflict with Germany, the University is ready to do its share. With the Coast Artillery Company and many other young men, not eager, but willing to go to war if it is necessary, this institution could offer to the nation its quota of men.

Now is the logical time to institute the military course that failed to materialize several months ago when urged by University authorities and many students. The failure at that time was due to lack of time and not lack of interest on the part of students.

The Council has suggested that some kind of co-operation might be brought about between the University and a Reserve Officers' Corps training class that is being organized in this city, and has appointed a committee to urge it.

Broader Dramatics

The Players are planning to enlarge their scope by holding stated meetings for the discussion of the drama, at which actors and playwrights may be heard.

If that organization does this, it will assume a more important place in the life of the University. Interest in things dramatic throuth the educational world seems greater than ever before. At Harvard, Princeton, and other universities, students and professors are writing and studying the stage and plays, not because courses demand it, but because they want to. Here there has been a movement for a dramatic course.

By supplementing their work of producing plays like "Diarrail" and "A Night Off," the play that will be given on Washington's birthday, the Players will gain the interest and help of the students who may not have the time nor inclination to act, but are much interested in dramatic work.

Dear Megaphone

(William Gilligan lent his aid to the girls' rooting campaign by writing this verse on Miss Fay Pierce's megaphone at a basketball game.)

Dear Megaphone, thou art my friend,
When I would make a noise;
When I would raise the loser's hope or
Share the winner's joys.
Some people think it foolish thus
By fervor to be led,
But they don't know, dear Megaphone,
The heart of a Co-Ed.

From the extensive social program that is mapped out by nearly every activity in the University for this month, it seems that many students have confidence in the efforts of last week. Or it may be a case of drowning sorrows in joy.

When you read in the papers of plans for a Washington Memorial, remember that this University is as great a memorial to the Father of his Country as can be erected. And there is the new Law School building fund that you can aid.

Many students found out last week that there is a difference between being thru and getting thru an examination.

SUMMER SCHOOL
SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED

Below is the Summer School program for this year as given out by Dean Wm. C. Ruediger, director of the University Summer School.

Classes carrying two semester hours of credit will meet five times a week for six weeks, Saturdays being free except that on Saturday, July 7, classes will meet at the usual hours. No classes will be held on Wednesday, July 4.

Classes carrying three semester hours of credit will usually meet six times a week for seven and one-half weeks, although where possible, arrangements will be made to complete the work in six weeks.

Friday and Saturday, August 3 and 4, will be given over to examinations in the two unit courses. No final examinations may be given before those days. Examinations in all other courses will be held when the work has been completed.

If desired, the classes scheduled for eight o'clock will begin fifteen minutes before eight so as to close about twenty minutes before nine.

Percy Sees Track Team

Dear Joe:

I went down to the Y. M. C. A. the other night to see what the much-talked-about track squad looked like, and I sure was surprised. I expected to see a lot of laborers working on a railroad, but instead, I witnessed a group of trim young men in ballet costumes. It is comical to see them go back to the primitive, Joe. They get down on all fours and when Manager James (I believe they call him Jesse) fires his cap pistol, they hop up and run as if a bulldog were after them. Maybe they were afraid of James. I don't know what else could have frightened them like that. They would run so hard and so long that their tongues would hang out and you felt like throwing them some raw meat. Really, Joe, it was pitiful. Manager James said they were showing good form, but indeed I couldn't see it. I should advocate more material for their costumes so as to show as little as possible. These are hard times, tho, and they must economize. When the men got thru running they said they were going to take a shower bath. I went to the window and looked out and it was as clear as could be. It wasn't raining at all. Imagination is a great thing, Joe. I will look for you at the Prom tonight, Joe. They think we can't dance, but that is the biggest joke we've played on the students here. I may be late, but you can be practicing until I arrive.

PERCY.

Suppose Fatimas were NOT Sensible

It isn't possible to fool men for long. Lincoln said that better than we could. ¶ Surely, if Fatimas were not as comfortable to the throat and tongue as we say they are—if they did not leave a man feeling keen and "fit" after a long-smoking day—do you suppose that more Fatimas would be sold every day than any other high-grade cigarette? ¶ Remember these facts as you try Fatimas and observe how comfortable, how sensible they really are.

MEET MONDAY TO PLAN ALL-UNIVERSITY SERMON

Presidents, Marshals, Aides and Council to Meet in A. & S. Assembly Hall Monday—Sermon For All

A meeting of all presidents of all classes, the senior marshals, members of the Student Council, and aides elected by classes, has been called by Dean Wilbur for next Monday at 8 o'clock in the A. & S. Assembly Hall to plan the student participation in first mid-year baccalaureate sermon to be held at the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church on Sunday, February 18, at 4 o'clock.

It is planned to have the entire student body attend by classes, and all seniors, both June and February, will wear caps and gowns. All students will assemble at the Medical School, across from the church, at 3:15 o'clock, where the University will provide gowns for the seniors.

Dr. Clarence Augustus Barbour, president of the Rochester Theological Seminary, will preach the sermon, and President Stockton will preside.

The mid-winter convocation will be held on Washington's Birthday at 11 o'clock in the A. & S. Assembly Hall. Dean William Allen Wilbur will make the principal address on "Main Currents of Shakespeare's Plays." Rev. Henry W. A. Millington will deliver the benediction.

DR. THOMPSON DEAD

Was Emeritus Professor of Surgery. Served University 20 Years

Dr. Joseph Ford Thompson, emeritus professor of surgery of the University, died February 1 at the University Hospital after an illness of more than a year. He was nearly 70 years old.

He was a professor in the Medical School for over twenty years, and held high place in the medical profession.

REHEARSAL TOO ACTIVE

"Action" Command Causes Confusion in "A Night Off"

It was one of those rehearsals that always have to precede the production of a college play. The actors seemed to be taking "A Night Off," instead of acting it.

"A little action, more action," some one demanded.

The leading lady became flustered. The leading man stopped in his tracks.

For five or ten minutes there was a lively conference.

It was decided to leave the "action" for the dress rehearsal, and the play on Washington's Birthday.

PROF. KING NOW LIEUTENANT

Prof. Archibald King of the Law School, who is with the machine gun company, Third Infantry, N. G. D. C., has been commissioned second lieutenant.

HEBREW CLASS MEETS

President Stockton has acted favorably upon the petition of twelve members of the Menorah Society for the establishment of a course in the Hebrew language and literature, and the first class met Tuesday night, from 6:30 to 8:30.

Dr. Israel Schapiro, chief of the Semitic Division of the Congressional Library, is professor.

WHOLE UNIVERSITY READY IF WAR COMES

would suffer greatly from a reduction in enrollment in case of war, as many of our students are government clerks and are doing necessary government work. Conditions were practically normal during the Spanish war," said Dean Hodgkins, of the Department of Arts and Sciences.

Need Military Course

"Present conditions show more than ever the necessity and advisability of a military course in the University. I hope we can establish one next year, if not now," were Dean Wilbur's sentiments.

"Even the present conditions are likely to do the University some harm," said Dean Fraser. "Government clerks are being compelled to work overtime and that will interfere with their work."

Instead of hurting the College of Veterinary Medicine, Dean David E. Buckingham believes that war would cause more students to enroll in order to prepare for a commission in the army as veterinarians.

The Medical Department would be able to aid in relief work, and necessary sanitary work.

Mary W. Glascock, R. N., superintendent of the Nurses Training School says: "Every member of the training school stands ready and willing to share some part in the conflict for liberty and justice should this country be forced into war with Germany."

Ready for Georgetown Meet—To Race Catholic University

Track men are taking hard workouts daily this week in preparation for the Georgetown meet, February 17. The relay four will meet Catholic University in a mile event which should prove hard fought. Trials will be held this week at the Arcade with C. U., when the relay quartet will be picked. The most likely candidates are Brody, Thomas, M. Johnson, Scott, James, and Harsch. Dr. "Bob" Eller has been conditioning the men with two-mile jaunts outside which explains the bare-legged apparitions seen on lower Seventeenth street lately by shivering pedestrians.

QUINT LOSES TWO AND WINS ONE CONTEST

Using many substitutes, the team played a fair floor game, but could not hit the basket. Four field goals by Georgetown and none for G. W. were scored in the first half, which ended 17 to 5.

Harmon did well at free tossing, and McMahon, a new man, was seen in action. Helst, Almon, Harmon, Groesbeck and Hillis started, and Bixler, Wilson, Allen and McMahon substituted.

LOSE TO GALLAUDET

Game So Rough Officials Had Trouble Penalizing

The team took the short end of the game Saturday with Gallaudet, at Kendall Green, with the score of 38 to 33. The great improvement of the opponents and the disadvantage of a foreign floor contributed to the team's defeat.

The game was hard-fought thruout, and rough, the overworked officials being scarcely able to penalize sufficiently. Harmon playing center made good use of the foul penalties, caging 15 out of 22 free throws, besides contributing largely to the score by four goals from the floor. Giacomo back in his position as forward got three field goals and Almon one. George Washington won the former game with Gallaudet, 39 to 21.

Referee—Mr. James Colliflower, of Georgetown. Umpire—Mr. Morse, of Clarkson Tech. Time of halves—20 minutes each.

WIN FROM DAVIS AND ELKINS

Score is 23 to 21—Harmon, New Center, Stars

G. W. basketballers added another scalp to their growing collection by defeating Davis and Elkins College, 23 to 21, on January 27. The West Virginia boys jumped in the lead for the first half which ended 9 to 11.

Starting the second half with a rush the battle became more interesting particularly to the home crowd as G. W. forged ahead. Frequent arguments over the possession of the ball brought forth applause from the gallery.

G. W. tried a new line-up, Hillis and Giacomo changing places, while Harmon held down center. Giacomo did not let his guard position stop him from getting goals, shooting two. Harmon, of the football squad, made good as center, scoring two field goals and caging a good percentage of free tosses. These goals from fouls proved a deciding factor in the game, as each team got a like number of field goals, two in first and three in the second half.

PHARMACY

In a recent interview, Dean Kalusowski said that this year had witnessed a marked decrease in the number of students in the Pharmacy colleges throughout the country. The short hours and better remuneration of other professions, and trades are responsible.

At the present time, however, there is a good demand for pharmacists, he said. The requirement of a degree from a reputable institution, in order to practice pharmacy will benefit college students. Such a law is in effect in many States.

Pharmacy's mid-year exams took place in the middle of January, but the results will not be announced until after the meeting of the Board of Trustees, February 6.
